Chief of Police
Town of Woodstock, New Brunswick

The Town of Woodstock is seeking applications for the position of Chief of Police from individuals who possess the knowledge, skills and competencies required to lead the Woodstock Town Police in either a full time permanent or contractual basis.

Woodstock enjoys the services of one of the province's smaller municipal police forces with a complement of 15 full time officers providing 24/7 coverage to the citizens of Woodstock, NB.

The Chief of Police is responsible for the overall management, administration and operation of the Police Force, including any necessary discipline within the Woodstock Police Force as defined under the New Brunswick Police Act.

The successful candidate will have a history of police service career progression, combined with exceptional communication and relationship building skills. Further the applicant will be able to demonstrate personal values such as integrity, fairness, cultural sensitivity and accountability.

The candidate must have a thorough understanding and experience in police service organizational systems, information management, human resource management, knowledge of a full range of law enforcement operational techniques, principles and legislation application.

The successful candidate will also demonstrate the ability to maintain effective and positive working relationships with governing authorities, local citizens and community leaders.

The Woodstock Police Force is a progressive policing agency that offers a full range of benefits that will be commensurate with the successful candidates experience and skill sets.

Applicants need to understand that full time permanent employment also requires the successful candidate to reside within the limits of the Town of Woodstock.

If you possess the qualifications and experience to assume a leadership role in local policing, contact the undersigned for a detailed information package.

Andrew Garnett
A/Chief Administrative Officer
Woodstock, NB
506-325-4644
andrew.garnett@town.woodstock.nb.ca